DEE CONSERVANCY

No.31 – 2014

Marine Safety In The Dee Conservancy Booklet

Mariners are advised that the booklet 'Marine Safety in the Dee Conservancy' has recently been reviewed and is now available to download from the Dee Conservancy pages of the Natural Resources Wales website.

All mariners are reminded of the guidance on navigational safety included in the booklet in addition to the emergency reporting procedure and contact details.

A hard copy of the booklet is no longer available and earlier editions are superceded and should be destroyed.
