Llwybr Arglwyddes Mair Lady Mary's Walk

UCHAFBWYNTIAU

Mae'r daith gerdded hanesyddol fer hon yn cynnwys rhai golygfannau ardderchog yn rhoi cipolwg ar hen dref farchnad Llanrwst.

Enwyd y daith gerdded hon ar ôl un o ddwy 'Fonesig Fair' o'r teulu Wynn a brynodd y tir ac a adeiladodd yr hanesyddol Ystâd Gwydir. Mae'r daith gerdded yn cynnwys dau gerflun gan artistiaid lleol, un yn gofeb i hen Neuadd Tref Llanrwst a osodwyd i gynnal y cyswllt gwerthfawr rhwng y dref a'r goedwig. Lawrlwythwch y llwybr sain MP3 a gwrandewch ar stori Llanrwst a'r teulu Wynn.

HIGHLIGHTS

This short historic walk takes in some fantastic viewpoints giving glimpses of the old market town of Llanrwst.

The walk is named after one of two 'Lady Marys' from the Wynn family who bought the land and built up the historic Gwydir Estate. The walk takes in two sculptures by local artists, one a memorial to the old Llanrwst Town Hall placed to maintain the precious link between the town and the forest. DESCRIPTION: The trail is on a mixture of wide forest roads and a path with an unmade uneven surface where you can expect some mud, rocks and tree roots. There is a chicane at the start of the trail, and at the top of the first hill, with a gap of around 60cm to walk through. On the forest road descent you'll pass the Tudor Bowling Green, with a picnic table and a bench with a final vista down the Conwy valley enroute to the car park.
